

Toronto – June 25, 2018 – Goldman Communications is proud to announce it has been retained as the agency of record for CMC Markets Canada, the Canadian division of international online trading platform CMC Markets.

CMC Markets was founded in 1989 in London, England, and has been operating in Canada since 2005 as the first Contracts for Difference (CFD) provider in the country. The innovative trading and education platform specializes in CFD and Foreign Exchange trading.

CMC Markets offers over 10,000 trading instruments, including indices, commodities, shares and more. The CMC Markets Canada platform offers not only a diverse range of investment products, but also comprehensive market analysis and educational resources.

“Corey and the Goldman Communications team will help us bring our global success to the Canadian market as well,” says CMC Markets Head of Canada Michael Yeung.

“We are very excited to be partnering with CMC Markets Canada,” says Corey Goldman, Founder and CEO of Goldman Communications. “We look forward to sharing their insights as leaders in the fintech and CFD trading space in Canada and around the world.”

About CMC Markets Canada:

CMC Markets Canada, Inc. is an award-winning online foreign exchange and contracts for difference trading company. It allows customers to trade on various instruments, including Canadian and global shares, as well as international indices, sectors, commodities, and treasuries. CMC Markets also offers spreads, commission free foreign exchange trading, online training courses, and a trading platform.

About Goldman Communications:

Founded in 2012 by a veteran international communications pro with unparalleled experience working with some of the biggest names in financial journalism and some of the most trusted brands in the world, Goldman Communications brings new and innovative ways of augmenting their clients' public presence.

Contact Information:

Adam Bernards | Associate
Goldman Communications Inc.
1.416.322.2863
adam@goldman-communications.com
www.goldman-communications.com